

U.S. General Services Administration
Office of Inspector General

JAN 21 2015

Shaun Donovan
Director
Office of Management and Budget
725 17th Street, NW
Washington, DC 20503

Dear Mr. Donovan:

The Government Charge Card Abuse Prevention Act of 2012 mandates that Inspectors General report to the Director of the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) on agency progress implementing audit recommendations.¹ Pursuant to these requirements and the implementation guidance in OMB Memorandum 13-21, the General Services Administration Office of Inspector General does not have any outstanding audit recommendations to report related to either purchase card or convenience check transactions or programs.²

If you have any questions or need more information, please contact me at ted.stehney@gsaig.gov/202-501-0374. Staff inquiries may be directed to Marisa A. Roinestad, Associate Deputy Assistant Inspector General for Auditing, at marisa.roinestad@gsaig.gov/202-273-7241, or Brian J. Gibson, Program Director, at brian.gibson@gsaig.gov/202-273-7278.

Sincerely,
